

Man bashes disabled father

THE STAR 18/09/2018 MS-13

He got angry after he was told to move out of family home

A LORRY co-driver bashed his father's head with a hockey stick when the former was asked to move out of the family home in Permatang Pauh, reported Kosmo!

The man, 19, was not happy with his father's request, said Seberang Perai OCPD Asst Comm Nik Ros Azhan Nik Ab Hamid.

Further investigation showed that the suspect was not under the influence of alcohol or drugs when the incident happened.

The father, who is physically disabled, is in stable condition after suffering injuries to the back of the head, left elbow and back.

"We detained the suspect a few hours after, and he has been remanded to assist in investigations," said ACP Nik Ros Azhan.

> Police are tracing the family of a boy around 11 or 12 who was discovered drowned in a pool near a hotel in Kota Baru, reported Harian Metro.

Kota Baru OCPD Asst Comm Ismail Mat Sidik said the body, which had no identification, was found by visitors on Sept 14 around 5.50pm.

The victim had tanned skin, was 127cm tall and weighed 29kg, said ACP Ismail.

"The victim was found wearing a pair of shorts and a shirt. The body is at the Raja Perempuan Zainab II Hospital's Forensic Department," he added.

He said police have classified the case as sudden death, and there is no element of crime.

ACP Ismail said examinations showed the victim did not get the BCG vaccination.

> Mat Kholir Mohd Ali, 62, and his family were left with only the clothes on their back after a fire engulfed their settler home at Felda Tembangau, Triang, reported Sinar Harian.

The fire happened last Friday morning when nobody was at home.

"I was out netting fish while my wife was delivering kuih to neighbours.

"She heard an explosion at the back room and tried to put out the fire, but failed," Mat Kholir said.